10RC01 - The Bill Sensibility (and this is the last time we want to hear about it) Amendment

First, Vague Principle 4 is amended. The following language is tacked onto it: "In the interest of practicality, however, the Cosâ may limit the volume of legislation." A referendum proposing this change is to be held among the Talossan people as soon as possible. Second, the following articles are added to the Constituziun:

Art. 73a. Bills submitted to the Clark (except for proposed Constitutional Amendments) shall not exceed 150 words, unless the MC proposing the bill pays a fee of 50 cents (U.S.) for every additional 150 words or part thereof.

Art. 73b. No member may submit more than three bills to any one Clark, unless he pays a fee of 50 cents (U.S.) for each additional bill. Bills submitted jointly by more than one MC shall count, for purposes of this article, against only the first name on the list of sponsors (Other sponsors may lend their names as moral support to the bill.)

Proposed by: Robert Madison (PV-Vuode}, Daniel Lorentz (PW-Vuode)

Ben Madison (PV-Vuode)

Danihel Lauriér (PW-Vuode)

10RC02 - The Moral Support for Hungary Act

The Kingdom of Talossa sends the following message to the Hungarian delegation of the UN: "The Kingdom of Talossa sends its happiest congratulations to the government and people of the Republic of Hungary for its courageous stand in declaring itself a democratic nation. We celebrate the spread of democratic values globally, and strongly acclaim the brave decision of the Hungarian people, who have acted on behalf of humanity and themselves.

Proposed by: Robert Madison (PV-Vuode)

Uréu q'estadra sã,
Ben Madison (PV-Vuode)

10RC03 - A Foreign Policy Statement

10RC04 - Advice Sought Twice Act

The following two questions are to appear on the next election ballot as advisory referenda:

Do you think that Talossa should relinquish all territorial claims? Yes or no?

Do you think that Talossan voters should have the option to choose "none of the above" on their election ballots and to have this choice represented proportionately in the Cosâ by empty seats? Yes or no?

Proposed by: Daniel Lorentz (PW-Vuode)

Uréu q'estadra sã,
Daniei Lauriéir (PW-Vuode)

10RC05 - The Next Living Cosâ Act

The Cosâ resolves to hold a Living Cosâ in December. John Jahn is named Speaker. The PM shall PD an appropriate date for the Living Cosâ after consultation with parliamentary leaders.

Proposed by: Robert Madison (PV-Vuode)

Uréu q'estadra sâ,
Ben Madison (PV-Vuode)

10RC06 - The Commander of Talossan Overseas Forces Act

WHEREAS Citizen Brook Gläfke has for the past five years of his Citizenship shown great involvement and interest—and hence patriotism—in his adopted homeland of Talossa, and WHEREAS he has been the sole Citizen outside the immediate vicinity of the Kingdom to sustain such activity, the Cosà hereby grants him the special title of "Commander of Talossan Overseas Forces." While purely ceremonial in character, this title nonetheless is granted to Mr. Gläfke because his patriotism and involvement in the face of adverse distance is admirable and worthy of duplication and imitation by Citizens in similar circumstances.

Proposed by: John A. Jahn (TNP-Pórt Maxhestic), Brook Gläfke (TNP-Pórt Maxhestic)

Noi urent q'estadra sã,
Ián von Metáiriã (TNP-Pórt Maxhestic)
Brook Pànetã (TNP-Pórt Maxhestic)

10RC07 - The Talossan Clean Air Act

10RC08 - The Permanent National Defence Act
