17RC38 - The Financial Compensation and AIR Abolishment Act

WHEREAS the Account of Inland Revenue at the UW Credit Union (our national treasury) has been stagnant for years, earning no interest off the $24,80 contained therein; and WHEREAS no additions or withdrawals from the accounts have been made in years; and WHEREAS King Robert I has generously copied up two copies of The History of the Kingdom of Talossa and donated them to the UWM Library at a cost to him of approximately $28; THEREFORE We the Cosà, hereby authorise King Robert I to reimburse himself for $24.80 worth of his generous gift by taking this money out of the Account of Inland Revenue, it being understood that this will cause the Account to cease to exist.

17RC39 - The Buy Krugerrands Act

WHEREAS in a law of 8/23/86. the RT imposed snactions upon South Africa, demanding the release of ANC leader Nelson Mandela and the creation of a "multi-ethnic, federal democracy" before these sanctions would be lifted; and WHEREAS PDs 1a and 4 only extended RT "diplomatic relations" and "recognition" to the ANC and the "Botha Government"; Therefore, the Cosâ hereby enacts the following:

Due to the release of Mandela nd the creation of a democratic system in South Africa, due in no small part to the extraordinary pressure exerted upon the latter by Talossan economic sanctions, the Cosâ hereby congratulates Mandela and DeKlerk for their work in creating a new state, and hereby wishes to endorse the new South Africa by dropping sanctions forthwith.

17RC40 - The Separate but Equal Doctrine

WHEREAS in a law designed primarily to trivialise the importance of the Armed Forces of the Kingdom, LC18 (9/92), the Cosâ did thereby subordinate the Talossan Military to the War Games Ministry; and WHEREAS real war and war games are two very distinctly different enterprises (just try playing "Third Reich" in downtown Sarajevo}, the Cosâ hereby declared that the Talossan Military, under the direction of a Defense/War Minister, is a ministry unto itself, not beholden to the War Games Ministry or any other cabinet-level offices.

Noi urent q'estadra sâ,
Ián von Metáiriâ (PC-Maritiimi-Maxhestic)
Ben Madison (PC-Vuode)
Wes Erni (PC-Vuode)

17RC41 - The Anti-Anti-Nationalism Act

In a law written by Dan Lorentz (LC4, 3/90), entitled Another Foreign Policy Statement, the Cosâ approved a bill which states, in part, that "devotion to one's nation should not be one's most important political obligation;" that such nationalism is "dangerous," "impedes human solidarity," and Talossa hereby "shits upon it." These idiotic and insolent remarks fly in the face of our Talossan nationalistic pride, especially the line that says "our (Talossan) 'nationality' is disposable," and it doesn't claim any "unconditional loyalty from us."

WHEREAS the above statements conflict with our Constituizun's Vague Principle which speaks of "nationbuilding," and its Preamble, which says "our responsibilities to our country are no less sacred a trust than those of other people to theirs," and "Talossa is a nation. This we swear!" Therefore the Cosâ hereby overturns LC4 (3/90) lock, stock, and barrel.

17RC42 - Foreign Policy Statement Revision Act

INTRODUCTION: In March of 1990 the Cosâ, then under Leftist control, passed a so-called "Foreign Policy Statement" denouncing patriotism of any kind and declaring Talossa "disposable". DESTRUCTION: Therefore, the Cosâ, now under Centrist control, hereby repeals that offensive "Statement" (LC4.3.90) and enacts the following as the official statement of Talossa's government on such matters:

The Kingdom of Talossa is a community of persons whose lives would be less bright and whose political, spiritual, ethnic or national ambitions would be less fulfilled were it not for its existence. We can say the same for all other legitimate countries. The Kingdom celebrates the natural diversity of human languages and cultures, except when the latter become diseased and work to the moral, social, or spiritual detriment of their members or oppressive to minorities in their midst. We reaffirm our moral support (RC8.7.91) for secessionist movements in general, barring of course ones which seek terrorism or unreasonable territorial demands. We accept that one's ultimate political obligation is to the nation to which one belongs, to the extent to which that nation enshrines social and economic liberty and tolerates the transition to sovereignty or others in its border. We broadly endorse the concept of "one people, one state", but also rejoice when peoples forge multiethnic states founded upon the consent of every constituent group

The Kingdom of Talossa regards as natural the lamentable condition of ethnic dominance and repression exercised by powerful nations against weaker ones, but preaches liberation based upon merit and not upon any flaky Jeffersonian abstractions of equality. Nations who are objectively "better" based on such factors as a literacy culture, family cohesion, and absence of social pathologies, will inevitably rise to greater heights of self-rule, regardless of political platitudes, so Talossa proclaims the objective social self-betterment of each national community as its clearest, brightest path to liberation and peace. Multiethnic states should leave their minorities alone to develop for themselves their own methods at social improvement, funded by their own resources. And ethnic minorities should stop whining about mistreatment until their own house is in order. Culturally-separatist ethnic groups who complain about the majority without clearly proving in their own communities that they could govern themselves any better than they are currently being governed, should be expelled politically (not physically) from the country--and given a proportional territorial base so they might become self-governing, sovereign states.

17RC43 - The Progressive Musical Archive Wing Act

The Cosâ confers upon John Eiffler the title of Associate Musical Archivist and designates his extensive musical library of some 800+ CDs, LPs, cassettes, and reel-to-reel recordings of music released predominantly after 1950 as The Talossan National Musical Library: Progressive Wing, and distinguishes the current T.M.M.L. as the Conservative Wing. After lengthy conversations with current Archivist J. Jahn it is agreed that regardless of taste, music is an important part of any culture and while the progress of current musical trends is important in any culture, so is an appreciation of the past influences that bring the music into being.

17RC44 - The Mystery Science Act

WHEREAS at least three citizens--Eiffler, Madison, McGarry--are heavily involved in the global phenomenon of "Mystery Science Theater 3000", the Cosà establishes those three citizens (plus any other Talossan MSTies who wish to join) as a Committee, to draft a letter to Mike Nelson, Tom Servo, Crow T. Robot, Gypsy, and Cambot at the MST 3k fan club in Minnesota. The letter is authorised to announce the conferring of honorary RT citizenship upon said beings and to announce to them that Mystery Science Theater 3000 is henceforth the official programme of the Kingdom of Talossa. All citizens are urged to watch. Note: Talossa may get actual air time on USA-wide television if this act passes. Vote carefully.

17RC47 - The New Bills May Not Be Presented at the Living Cosa Amendment

WHEREAS a literal reading of the first line in Art. 107 of the Constituziun makes it sound like no bills can be presented at a Living Cosâ we hereby add the word "New" to said Article, causing it to read: "New bills may not be presented at the Living Cosâ."

17RC48 - (Records Missing)

17RC49 - The Cézembre Supreme Directional Control Act

WHEREAS Frédéric Maugey, Patrick Matter, and Vincent and Guillaume Jacob--the entire RT citizen population of the Island of Cézembre--have recently been (ex)terminated by the Cosâ as RT citizens, if in fact they are still alive at all, the island of Cézembre has been left without native inhabitants. Therefore the Cosâ hereby abolishes the long-inactive and now completely pointless representative government of the island and places in under the supreme directional control of its current Governor, Robert Madison, who is empowered to draft a new constitution and/or rules for the island, under law.
