17RC50 - The Official Spelling Act

WHEREAS since 1985 the official spelling of English in Talossa has been 'British' and WHEREAS not everyone in Talossa knows all the differences between British and American English, Therefore the Cosà hereby establishes a Committee on Spelling to consist of Robert Madison and John Jahn (Talossa's to mosst active writers, in any language), plus anyone else who wants to join the committee, to develop rules for the official spelling of Talossan English, it being understood that the final resuklt will be neither pure-Britisih nor pure-American, but a substantially American spelling with local quirks.

However, a single Justice of the Uppermost Cort may hear a case n his own if this is acceptable to the other two members of the Cort. He shall be appointed to do so by unanimous vote of the entire three-person Cort, and shall render a decision on the case as if he were a majority of the whole Cort.
