18RC01 - The Be Kind to Animals and Other Living Things Act

In the last 20 yrs, the rhino count in Asia and Africa has declined from @100,000 to less than 10,000. Asia's tigers have been even more decimated: from @100,000 to @5,000 today. It's almost a foregone conclusion that both species will disappear from the wild this decade. This massacre is due almost exclusively to illegal poaching, in which various parts of these animals are used for "traditional" medicines, sex enhancers, jewelry, etc. Despite years of prodding my other nations, China and Taiwan ignore the warnings and continue to consume animal parts for those grisly purposes, and answer critics with indifference, hollow promises and subterfuge. Talossa says ENOUGH!

Talossa hereby roundly and firmly condemns these hideous practices perpetrated by poachers and their protectors, and hereby calls upon the world's nations to take whatever measures necessary to save these disappearing animals. Ful trad sanctions are hereby imposed upon China and Taiwan.

Proposed by: John A. Jahn (PC-Maritiimi-Maxhestic)

18RC02 - (Records Missing)

18RC03 - The Lawfully Obtain Amendment

WHEREAS the Constituziun contains weird language regarding the obtaining of a copy of The History by incoming citizens which almost implies that one could steal a copy rather than buying one, the Cosà hereby changes "otherwise acquires" to "otherwise lawfully acquires" in Art. 94c of the Constituziun.

18RC04 - (Records Missing)

18RC05 - (Records Missing)

18RC06 - The Propaganda Honesty Act

All campaign literature issued by any individual or party must henceforth contain on said literature the name(s) of the writer(s) of said literature, in such form as to be legible and comprehensible to the average reader of said literature. This does not apply to the 10x7cm advert or 50-word statement given to the Secretary of State.
