18RC23 - The Court Order and Injunctions Amendment

WHEREAS the Cort is the final arbiter and protector of civil and human rights in the Kingdom of Talossa, and WHEREAS the RT Constituziun does not clearly empower Cort Justices to intervene in the political process as soon as they perceive violations of law to occur; THEREFORE the Cosà hereby adds the following language as Article 84b:

Art. 84b: Any judge or justice may issue court orders or injunctions according to the generally accepted principles of Anglo-American law. These injunctions may order a party to perform his/her legal duty, or may prevent the enforcement of a law which may be Inorganic (unconstitutional). Violation of an injunction is treated as contempt of court. The final arbiter of the organicity of injunctions is the Uppermost Cort of Talossa.

Uréu q'estadra sã,
Ben Madison (PC-Vuode)

18RC24 - The Light Rail Act

The Cosâ hereby appeals to the State of Wisconsin via our man in Madison, Dan Lorentz, to build a comprehensive Ligh Rail network in the Kingdom of Talossa (preferably a subway) at the expense of huge amounts of someone else's money.

Uréu q'estadra sâ,
Ben Madison (PC-Vuode)

18RC25 - The Flúviâ Province "Restore Order" Act

WHEREAS in January the Cosâ directed the inhabitants of Southwest Territory/Flúviâ Province (John Eiffler, John McGarry, Gary Schwichtenberg) to adopt a constitution for the self-government of that Province and to cease Territorial status; and WHEREAS King Robert I graciously drafted such a constitution for them but it has never been approved or disapproved by the inhabitants, THEREFORE the Cosâ hereby orders King Robert I to conduct a referendum among the inhabitants of Flúviâ Province for the approval/disapproval of said Constitution, and to direct the installation of a legitimate constitutional government there if the referendum passes. If the referendum fails, Flúviâ Province will revert to its previous Territorial status.

Uréu q'estadra sâ,
Ben Madison (PC-Vuode)

18RC26 - The Draconian Campaign Publicity Act

The Cosâ hereby provides for the public's right to know in the field of election campaigns by enacting the following into law:

Because it is unethical and unTalossan to conduct "secret" election campaigns hidden from voters, historians, and journalists, the Cosâ hereby stands RESOLVED: The dissemination of "Political Adverts" (written political advertisements, mailings, formal appeals for votes, and all similar documents which the Cort considers to be variations thereof) is regulated according to the following law. 1) Political Adverts may be distributed as part of a package along with national ballots, in such a manner that every citizen receiving a ballot receives the same Political Adverts; 2) Political Adverts may also (or instead) be disseminated by publishing them in reputable Talossan newspapers. (For the purpose of this Act, a "reputable" newspaper is defined as one that has published continuously for at least one year, with a minimum of ten issues per year and a minimum of seven subscribers. This provision is included to prevent people from slapping a masthead onto an Advert and calling it a "newspaper.") 3) The use of mail, hand-delivery, fax, or any other means to evade rules 1 and/or 2, as given above, is a criminal offence which shall be punished by deprivation of Cosâ seats or other appropriate measures as the Cort shall inflict.

Uréu q'estadra sâ: Robert Madison (PC-Vuode)

[Editor's note: The wording of this act seems to allow for posting campaign literature on Witt, but not e-mail.]
