A. Full text of all bills on the Clark

22RC11 - The Berber Heritage Month Act

WHEREAS , Ben Madison first uncovered "evidence" of Talossa's supposed Berber Heritage in March, 1985; and

WHEREAS , Talossa has no organized forum in which to discuss, debate, or denounce Berbers and Berber Heritage,

THEREFORE, the Cosâ hereby names the month of March as "Berber Heritage Month" in Talossa, and encourages all citizens to express themselves in whatever medium is appropriate, on the question of Talossa's real or imagined Berbercentric prehistory. Note: In the year 1997, the Berber Heritage Month is postponed till April, otherwise the Clark won't be voted on till after it's over.

22RC12 - The Official Buildings Act

The Cosâ hereby instructs the Prime Minister (whoever that may be) to appoint a committee of Talossans living in and around the Kingdom to choose buildings on and around the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee campus, to serve as official sites for Talossa's various government ministries. These buildings can then be photographed and the pictures made available to the country's news organizations. In the event of the general collapse of Western civilization, the buildings themselves shall be slated for eventual takeover by the RT Government in the distant future when we've achieved a less ephemeral sovereignty.

22RC13 - The "Good Riddance!" Act

WHEREAS the Chinese people have just lost their 92-year-old leader Deng Xiaopeng, and

WHEREAS this ruthless dictator has been a horrible tyrant to many Mongolians, Tibetans, and his own people and

WHEREAS this vile, old, cantankerous violator of human rights should have his body buried face down in order for him to see where he is going,

THEREFORE, the nation of Talossa hereby sends no message of condolence to the Chinese people but instead sends a message of hope for the people who shall use this as a possible opportunity to rid themselves of the corrupt Communist government still ruling in China.

Uréu q'estadra sã,
Ben Madison (PC-Vuode)

22RC14 - The Richard Gere Be Gone Act

WHEREAS , China may well have some changes coming following the cremation of Deng; and

WHEREAS , Tibet has been suppressed by China for too long and has been closed to the outside world; and

WHEREAS , a number of untalented actors have, in sympathy with the Dalai Llama, wished to enter a free Tibethan nation.

THEREFORE, the Cosâ urges, through the Foreign Minister, China to let Tibet have it's freedom, so that the previously mentioned untalented actors can disappear in Tibethan terrain.

22RC15 - The C.F.T. Act

WHEREAS the C.F.T. (communauté francophone de Talossa) would like to be an organisation for the protection and promotion of French, and WHEREAS the C.F.T. respects the law, the Prime Minister and the King of Talossa, the Cosà hereby votes to give the C.F.T. the right to lead it's own business and to be an official organisation in Talossa.
