A. Full text of all bills on the Clark

25RZ96 - The Burn the Townships South Africa-Style Act

WHEREAS the Talossan geographic system contains a whopping five-tiers (!}, and

WHEREAS neither India, the world's largest democracy, nor America, the world's most powerful, have anything more than a three-tier system, i.e. national, provincial/state, and local;

THEREFORE the Ziu orders the SoS to have a referendum, to co-incide with the next Clark, to decide the following change in the Organic Law of 1997:

"In Art. XVI:Sec. 1, the phrases 'Townships (els Borgáis; census blocks), Parishes (els Pléivs; block groups),' and 'Townships, Parishes, or smaller areas may not be separated from Cantons or assigned to other Cantons.' is deleted.

In Art. XVI:Sec. 12, the phrase 'Township, Parish,' is deleted."

Uréu q'estadra sã,
Matt Dabrowski (PC-Vuode)

25RZ97 - The Sense of the Ziu (QJM) Resolution

WHEREAS the issue of the Monarch's political powers has never completely gone away, and even now, years and years and ideas and ideas later, the issue remains; and

WHEREAS several Talossans are in favor of the abdication of King Robert I in favor of Queen Jenny, or the Princess of Prospect;

THEREFORE the Ziu hereby adopts this non-binding "sense of the Ziu" resolution. If this resolution passes, further bills & constitutional amendments will be brought forward to allow the following:

1. King Robert I will abdicate in favor of his wife the Queen or the Princess of Prospect.

2. The House Law of the House and Dynasty of Madison will be revised to allow paragraph 1.

Once again, this resolution is totally non-binding. It is merely a gauge on how the idea would fare if it came to a vote.

Uréu q'estadra sã,
Matt Dabrowski (PC-Vuode)

25RZ98 - The Sense of the Ziu (State President) Resolution

WHEREAS the issue of the Monarch's political powers has never completely gone away, and even now, years and years and ideas and ideas later, the issue remains; and

WHEREAS this legislature has in the past shown some support for an elected State President to take on some of the Royal Duties; and

WHEREAS some Talossans have shown interest in creating such an office;

THEREFORE the Ziu hereby adopts this non-binding "sense of the Ziu" resolution. If this resolution passes, further bills & constitutional amendments will be brought forward to allow the following:

1. The Monarch may opt to delegate some or all of his Royal Duties to an elected State President.
2. The Monarch may at any time rescind his actions under paragraph 1 and resume full power.

Once again, this resolution is totally non-binding. It is merely a gauge on how the idea would fare if it came to a vote. The object of this idea is not Ben-bashing or anything, but to explore further ideas to make Talossa a more democratic state.

Uréu q'estadra sã,
Matt Dabrowski (PC-Vuode)

25RZ99 - The Election List Open to Everyone Act

WHEREAS John A Jahn in the past has criticised the opposition parties for sending party propaganda to on-line citizens only; and

WHEREAS the PC party has unlimited access to the election list;

THEREFORE the Ziu ask the SoS in collaboration with the Minister of Stuff and the Immigration Minister to provide to every party leader (who has registered his party) an election list. This election list should contain the name and the snail-mail addresses of every Talossans eligible to vote in the next election. This list should be sent five days before the commencement of the general election campaign.

Uréu q'estadra sã,

Mximo Carbonel (RCT-Florenciâ)

25RZ100 - The Repeal of Those Asinine, Annoying Questions Act

WHEREAS LZ50 of October, 1998 established a cumbersome system of "Questions to the Executive" which have increased the length of the Clark enormously and put great stress upon the Secretary of State's office to comply with publishing both questions and answers thereof; and

WHEREAS , the purpose of LZ50 of October, 1998 was to increase debate among, and accountability of, public officials--a function which the privately-owned Wittenberg already performs; and

WHEREAS many of us think that government has no business doing something that private industry can do more cheaply and more efficiently;

THEREFORE the Ziu hereby repeals LZ50 of October, 1998 and abolishes the "Questions to the Executive" on the Clark, and encourages the Talossan people to pose their questions directly to the country's leaders on Wittenberg.

Uréu q'estadra sã,
Ben Madison (PC-Vuode)

25RZ101 - The Addresses to the Whole Ziu Act

WHEREAS a Member of the Ziu may wish to make a statement to the whole Ziu concerning bills and his approval thereof or opposition thereto, or important matters such as party changes or personal issues;

THEREFORE the Ziu resolves that:

(i) A Member may make an Address to the Whole Ziu by filing said Address with the Secretary of State, to be published in the relevant Clark. Members will have until the fourth (4th) legislative day of the Clark period to file Addresses, only after which may the Secretary of State refuse to publish an Address.

(ii) Addresses to the Whole Ziu may concern bills, personal matters, or other business relevant to a Member's duties and actions as a Member of the Ziu. The Secretary of State may refuse to publish an Address due to lack of relevance.

(iii) If a Member's Address directly concerns another Member, that Member may have three days to file a rebuttal, that is, the Member may file no later than the seventh (7th) day of the Clark period. No counter-rebuttals will be published.

Uréu q'estadra sã,
Matt Dabrowski (PC-Vuode)

25RZ102 - The Ministerial Policy (Statement & Approval) Act

WHEREAS the Ministers to the Crown must be accountable to the people of Talossa through their representatives in the legislature; and

WHEREAS it should be the right of those representatives to approve the policy of the Ministers to the Crown in order to keep said Ministers accountable to the people;

The the Ziu resolves that:

(i) All important policy statements or policy changes must be approved by the Cosâ. Upon issuing a statement via Prime Dictate, the Prime Minister and/or the Minister under whose jurisdiction the matter falls must send the issue to the Cosâ for approval in a Clark.

(ii) The Prime Minister or the Minister may send a brief address concerning the matter to the Cosâ along with the statement.

(iii) A tied vote on the statement is construed as a passing vote.

(iv) As opposed to vetoing a Prime Dictate, the Monarch may invoke this clause of this act to send the Prime Dictate to the Cosâ for approval. However, any clause of this act can not be invoked to pass a Prime Dictate over the veto of the Monarch, as that action is in violation of the Organic Law of 1997.

Uréu q'estadra sã,
Matt Dabrowski (PC-Vuode)

WHEREAS David Fauteux has fulfilled all the requirements given by the Immigration Ministry; and

WHEREAS the Cort is making its decision as this bill is submitted;

Uréu q'estadra sã,

Gjermund Higræf (Immigration Minister)

25RZ106 - An Act to Amend Article VIII of the Organic Law

WHEREAS Members of the Ziu in the past have gotten overenthusiastic with the number of bills they submit monthly; and

WHEREAS other Members of the Ziu got exhausted with the number of bills thus submitted; and

WHEREAS the Organic Law does not allow the Ziu use any other force than Not-So-Invincible Moral Force to regulate the number of bills presented for the Clark;

THEREFORE Article VIII is hereby amended to read:

Art.VIII:Sec. 6. Notwithstanding Sections 2 and 5 of this Article, the Ziu may make laws regulating the number of bills a Member of the Cosâ or a Senator may submit for one Clark without the need to amend the Organic Law.

Uréu q'estadra sã,
Ceváglh Scurznicol (Lib-Maricopa)

25RZ114 - The Accountability of Elected Officials Act

WHEREAS in a democracy the people rule, and

WHEREAS people must be kept informed as to the official actions of their elected representatives, in order to know whether their representatives are in fact "representing" them, and

WHEREAS current Talossan law prevents voters from holding Members of the Cosà and Senators accountable on the issue of votes on incoming citizens, because these votes are kept secret, and

WHEREAS this secrecy is inconsistent with the public actions of the Uppermost Cort on citizenship votes, and runs contrary to the ideals of an accountable elected government;

THEREFORE the Ziu hereby annuls the section of the citizenship law providing for secret votes on citizens, and mandates that votes on citizens in the Ziu shall be reported the same as all other votes in the Ziu.
