29RZ01 - The archive nationalisation act

WHEREAS the office of the Secretary of State is currently trying to create a website which will contain as much information on the Kingdom of Talossa as possible, AND

WHEREAS not all of that information is currently publicly available, AND

WHEREAS some of the citizens of Talossa do have personal copies of that information AND

WHEREAS As times goes by, memory fails and document are destroyed, therefore possibly losing part of our history AND

WHEREAS other part of these information is contained in books protected by Copyright laws AND

WHEREAS some of these information are actually public information that should be available freely or for cost for all Talossa citizens

THEREFORE the Ziu resolves that :

At the end of this bill is a list of documents requisitionned by the office of the Secretary of State.

Any Talosssa citizen having a copy of said documents is asked to communicate with the Secretary of State in order to determine if these documents are needed

If this information is not published in a copyrighted book, if the Secretary of State requests a copy of these document, the citizen is requested to send a copy to the Secretary, in exchange for the payment of the cost incurred of copying and sending the document

If this information is published in a copyrighted book, if the Secretary of State request information contained in the document, the author is requested to send a copy of the book, in exchange for the normal price and shipping charge for the book.

The Secretary of State then has the right to publish the information from the book, free of royalties and of the obligation to indicate the source, provided this information is the raw information that would have been obtained or computed by the Secretary of State of that moment. Comments, analysis and other information are still protected by copyright law, and this bill should not be viewed as an attack on copyrights.

29RZ02 - The Regency Ammendment

WHEREAS , the appointment of a Regent by the King or by the Uppermost Cort is of useful benefit to the Talossan political structure, the Ziu hereby authorizes a public Referendum at the earliest possible opportunity, to replace the existing Article III, Section 7, of the Organic Law, with the following texts:

Art. III:Sec. 7. Whenever, upon the decease of the King, the Heir shall be less than eighteen years of age, the royal powers and duties shall be exercised by a Regent or Council of Regency, as hereinafter provided.

Art. III:Sec. 8. It shall be lawful for the King at any time when he may about to absent himself from the Kingdom, to appoint a Regent or Council of Regency, who shall administer the Government in His name, during his absence; and likewise the King may, by His last Will and Testament, appoint a Regent or Council of Regency to administer the Government during the minority of any Heir to the Throne; and should a Sovereign decease, being heirless, or leaving a minor Heir, and having made no last Will and Testament, the Uppermost Cort at the time of such decease shall be a Council of Regency, until the Ziu, which shall be called immediately, be assembled, and the Ziu immediately that it is assembled shall proceed to choose by law, a Regent or Council of Regency, who shall administer the Government in the name of the King, and exercise all the powers which are constitutionally vested in the King, until the legitimate Heir shall have attained the age of eighteen years, which age is declared to be the legal majority of such Sovereign.

Uréu q'estadra sã,
Ben Madison (King Of Talossa PC-Vuode)
