42RZ11 - The Limitations Act

42RZ11 - THE LIMITATIONS ACT

WHEREAS 14RC30-The Statute of Limitations Act defines that the Statute of Limitations shall be no more than three (3) months from the date of the alleged commission of a crime, and

WHEREAS given the nature and largely Internet basis of the Kingdom of Talossa, a crime can go months, if not years, without being discovered, and

WHEREAS a full and thorough investigation into a crime could take longer than three months, and

RECOGNISING that three months is not a suitable nor adequate length of time for Statues of Limitations, and

NOTING that a apt period of time should be established that does not prohibit a reasonable investigation nor infringe upon the accused rights, now

THEREFORE the Ziu does hereby enact:

Section 1:

1. The Statute of Limitations on all offences shall be thirty six (36) months, starting from the date the offence is discovered or the 'date of knowledge' of the injured party.
2. If the potential claimant is not at least 14 years old or did not have a sound mind at the time of the discovery/knowledge of the offence, time will not run until date of his 14th birthday or he has sound mind.

Section 2: This Act shall not apply to:

1. any action for which a period of limitation is fixed by any other limitation enactment;
2. fraud upon the court, which for the purpose of this act shall be defined as "to embrace that species of fraud which does, or attempts to, defile the court itself, or is a fraud perpetrated by officers of the court so that the judicial machinery cannot perform in the usual manner its impartial task of adjudging cases that are presented for adjudication."
3. war crimes as they are defined in the Charter of the Nürnberg International Military Tribunal of 8 August 1945
4. crimes against humanity, whether committed in time of war or in time of peace, as defined in the Charter of the Nürnberg International Military Tribunal Tribunal of 8 August 1945, eviction by armed attack or occupation, inhuman acts resulting from the policy of apartheid, and the crime of genocide as defined in the 1948 Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide.

Section 3: If any person commits a series of illegal acts or commits a continuing crime the period of limitation shall begin to run from the date of the last act in the series.

Section 4: Nothing in this Act shall:

1. enable any action to be brought which was barred before the operative date by any enactment repealed by this Act
2. affect any action commenced before the date this act came into force.

FURTHERMORE 14RC30-The Statute of Limitations Act is hereby repealed.

42RZ12 - The Cosa Vote Finality Act, Redux

WHEREAS the Cosâ Vote Finality Act (6RC86) is unenforceable as written, since it can be read such that it would only apply if John Jahn were still the Secretary of State, and

WHEREAS S:r Jahn is not the Secretary of State, and is not likely to be appointed to that "illustrious" position anytime in the great near future, but

WHEREAS the current Secretary believes that the Act itself is still a good idea,

THEREFORE be it resolved that all votes cast by Members of the Ziu shall be considered final and may not be changed once cast, and

FURTHERMORE the original Cosâ Vote Finality Act is hereby repealed.

Noi urent q'estadra sâ,
