43RZ13 - The Privacy of Talossans is Paramount Act

Whereas official agencies of the Kingdom pre-require prospective citizens to provide the Kingdom with a personal postal address and telephone number which is stored on electronic databases built into the Kingdom of Talossa's main website hosting package,

Whereas this information is stored indefinitely and is available for viewing by registered political party leaders, the Secretary of State, The Monarch and his agents and any cyber-terrorist, phisher or hacker,

Whereas this information is of an extreme personal nature and should not be stored on insecure web servers in the manner that it has been stored,

Whereas this information is collected in a web script form, which is filled in by a Prospective Citizen when joining the Kingdom, which forces the user input fields for postal address and telephone number to be required for submittal,

THEREFORE be it enacted by the Ziu that it shall no longer be an immigration requirement to provide a postal address and telephone number upon application for citizenship

HOWEVER a valid email address must be provided as well as information regarding the prospective citizen's country of residence and, if in the United States of America, State of Residence

FURTHERMORE a full postal address and telephone number may still be requested allowing for the citizen to choose whether to provide this information or not

ADDITIONALLY Upon the passage of this act the Secretary of State must take measures to ensure that any prospective citizen or fully naturalized citizen that has personal details currently on the database is provided with a clear and easy method to request the removal of same.

FINALLY The government and Chancery be granted a period of 90 days grace to take reasonable measures to ensure compliance with this act.

43RZ14 - The Riverside Park Renaming Act

WHEREAS John Woolley has been a citizen of Talossa for some time now

WHEREAS he was a fantastic Secretary of State

WHEREAS he became King of the nation

WHEREAS he has been our King since the days of the great separation

WHEREAS he has been a fair and great King

WHEREAS we should honour the time and dedication that he has put into being our king and we should honour the time and dedication that he has put into Talossa in general

Furthermore we should start a new tradition of naming things in Talossa after the people who are great Talossans so that they are remembered in history no matter what happens in the future

Therefore be it enacted by the Ziu that "Riverside Park", located in the Benito province of the Kingdom of Talossa, surrounded by East Locust Street to the North, The river to the West, North Oakland Avenue to the East and East Park Place to the South, be renamed to "King John Woolley on the Riverside Park".

43RZ15 - The Judicial Retirement Act

43RZ15 – The Judicial Retirement Act

WHEREAS Justices, Judges and Magistrates have a tendency to fall inactive and WHEREAS inactive courts can gunk up the works and

WHEREAS we can always remove inactive Jurists but

WHEREAS removing someone from office carries with it a certain degree of embarrassment so

THEREFORE, a system of Judicial Retirement is established.

1. Justices of the Uppermost Court and Judges of any inferior court, may retire through voluntary leave of office. This shall be accomplished through submitting a letter of retirement to the King. The retirement shall take effect immediately upon confirmed receipt by the King or an authorized representative.

2. Justices (or Judges) may be compelled to retire through organic removal from office through an act of the Ziu in accordance with Article XVI Section 1 of the Organic Law. In such case, the Ziu shall stipulate whether the removal is punitive in nature or simply to compel retirement. In either case, such measure shall include a clear and objective narrative which highlights the misconduct or negligence which resulted in a punitive removal from office, or the merits and career highlights of a retired Jurist, respectively.

3. Retired Justices shall enjoy the style "Very Honourable Mister/Madame" for life in commemoration of their service to the Nation, and may use the title "Justice Emeritus."

4. Retired Judges or Magistrates shall enjoy the style "Honorable Mister/Madame" for life in commemoration of their service to the Nation, and may utilize the title "Retired Judge/Magistrate."

5. Retired status will be honorary in nature and shall not confer any authority or responsibility within any Talossan Court or the Royal Talossan Bar or over its members, students or associates. Neither shall these titles, in and of themselves, confer membership in the Royal Talossan Bar enabling the holder to engage in the practice of law.

6. Retired status can be revoked only in the event of a conviction by a Talossan Court for misconduct while serving in a judicial capacity. In the event of such conviction, revocation of retirement privileges shall be contained as part of the sentencing order. Retired status can also be revoked by the Ziu through majority vote and approval by the Monarch. Such legislative action can be taken only after the retiree has been convicted by a Talossan Court for misconduct while serving in a judicial capacity and only after all appeals have been exhausted.

7. Retired status will also be revoked in the event the retiree shall be convicted of a felony by any Court of the Realm. Felony convictions by a provincial court shall be forwarded to the Minister of Justice for review. If cause for revocation of retirement status is found based upon the nature of the conviction, the Minister of Justice shall propose or cause to be proposed a measure of the Ziu to revoke any and all privileges of retirement from the accused, after all appeals have been exhausted.

8. Retired status shall be considered waived if a retired Justice, Judge or Magistrate resigns his/her citizenship and shall be considered revoked if the retiree has his/her citizenship terminated by a Court of the Realm.
