Therefore subsubparagraph 1.6.2 of Title C, which currently reads

46RZ20 - The Talossan Monetary Policy Reform Act

WHEREAS Talossa wants coins as a symbol of the nation, and

WHEREAS the laws of the United States prohibit the making, uttering, or passing any coins of any metal or alloys of metals, even of original design, intended for use as current money, and

WHEREAS the Talossan responsible for producing the coins is resident in the United States and would like to be in compliance with that law, now

THEREFORE we, the Ziu, hereby enact the following replacements for subsections 1 through 7 of Title C, Section 7 of the Lexhatx:

7.1. Base Unit of Account. The base unit of account for the Kingdom of Talossa is hereby established and styled the "BENT." The plural of the bent is "BENCE." Convenient shortenings such as "tubbence" and "thrubcence" shall be understood and recognised by the government, and may appear on collectable tokens (colloquially "coinage", though they shall not constitute current money). This unit of account is fixed to $0.025 in the currency of the United States of America.

7.2. Second Unit of Account. A second unit of account, which shall have the fixed denomination of sixty (60) bence, is hereby established and styled the "LOUIS," which shall also be officially recognised by the shortened name "LOU." The plural of the lou is "LOUISE." Convenient colloquialisms for the denominations of louise are encouraged, specifically "Brock" for a single lou, "Costello" for five louise, "Ferrigno" for ten louise, "Rawls" for twenty louise, and so forth.

7.2.1. The commonly-used symbols ℓ and ¢ shall be officially adopted for the louis and bent, respectively, and these symbols shall be used in accordance with common practice: ¢ to be used as a separator of the two denominations, with louise on the left of the symbol and bence on the right; ℓ may also be used to indicate amounts in whole louise, by placing the symbol to the left of the amount.

7.3. Creation and Issuance of Collectable Tokens. The Royal Bank & Post is exclusively authorised to design, cause to be created, issue, and distribute collectable tokens (colloquially "coinage", though they shall not constitute current money) in any denomination of whole bence. The Royal Bank & Post is authorised to imprint the denomination of any coinage with its price in louise, rather than in bence, as it sees fit.

7.3.1 Current Token Design. The first issue of Talossan collectable tokens ("coins") shall have, on the obverse, the Chinese character "ben" upon a shield, with a crown above the shield; above the crown shall be the curved inscription "REGIPäTS TALOSSáN", and below the shield shall be the curved inscription of the year of issue (both the Common Era in Arabic numerals and the year of the Kingdom of Talossa in Roman numerals). On the reverse shall be an image of a dandelion, a large "ℓ1", and the inscription "VIENS LUİç".

7.4. Talossan Currency. The currency of the Kingdom of Talossa shall be beer, which has been, and continues to be, thankfully and conveniently distributed worldwide.

7.5 Provisions Against Counterfeit Currency. The Royal Bank & Post shall take care to be clear that non-alcoholic "beer" is, in fact, not beer at all, and thus is not currency. Official terminology is hereby established that counterfeit currency denominated in louise are to be called "Alcindors" and counterfeit currency demoninated in bence are to be called "Afflecks" or "Hills."

7.6. Distribution and Redemption of Currency. Talossan currency shall be distributed in exchange for foreign currency, and may be redeemed for the same with the Royal Bank & Post according to policies of exchange to be established by that body.

7.7. Consular Exchange of Currency. Consulates of the Kindom of Talossa may be established at any establishment applying to become a consulate and wishing to exchange local currency for quantities of Talossan currency. Such application shall be made to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, which shall consult with the Royal Bank & Post before establishing any new consulate. The Kingdom shall provide a plaque or other sign to the establishment, which shall identify it as a consulate of the Kingdom of Talossa.

Uréu q'estadra sâ,
Sir Glüc da Dhi (Seneschal)

46RZ21 - Nominating Txec dal Nordselva to the Magistrate Courts act

WHEREAS there are currently two magistrate courts, and

WHEREAS we would like to have three, and

WHEREAS Dr. Txec dal Nordselva has been very active as a Talossan lawyer recently, and

WHEREAS Dr. Txec dal Nordselva was the second person in recent years to achieve an outstanding result on his bar exam, and

WHEREAS the Ziu is confident that Dr. Txec dal Nordselva will serve this Kingdom and its laws to the best of his ability, and

WHEREAS I would have liked to write a more imaginative bill, but I could not find much inspiration, now

Therefore the Ziu respectfully nominates Dr. Txec dal Nordselva to the Corts dels Edilicieux, in accordance with El Lexhatx G 10.1 and the Organic Law, article XVI, sections 1 and 4, and requests that His Majesty appoint him to serve.

46RZ23 - The Validate the Documents Act

WHEREAS it is custom to validate documents with an official seal; and,

WHEREAS we have not any laws in place that would penalise any "pseudo-validation" of a person, or documents, by bearing official seals; now,

THEREFORE a new section after A.22. shall be inserted in Title A of the Lexhatx, to read:

23. The unauthorised usage of any official seal of the Crown, of the Government, or of any other official body, shall constitute a Class A misdemeanour. Authorisation may be given by the Seneschal or the respective Minister, or by the head of the body concerned, or any of their duly designated proxies.

23.1. The unauthorised bearing, signing or displaying of any official seal of the Crown, of the Government, or of any other official body, shall constitute a Class A misdemeanour. Authorisation to bear any seal may be granted by the Seneschal, or the respective Minister, or by the head of the body concerned.

23.2. The use of any seal, that is attached unto a document, or a notification, or a declaration, or similar, that bears sufficient resemblance to any official seal, which is used by the creator in a document, or notification, or declaration, or similar, so as to create the impression of officiality, in order to:

- (a) obtain any personal advantages or benefits; or,

- (c) obtain any benefits and advantages for another person,

23.2.2. The use of the Kingdom's colours ("El Bicoloreu") on any seal does not satisfy the requirements of "sufficient resemblance".

Uréu q'estadra sã,

Magniloqueu Épiqueu da Lhiun (MC-MRPT)

46RZ24 - The Less is more in Talossa (LimiT) Act

WHEREAS the Ministry of Justice, and, verily, the Attorney General has close contact to the Magistrate's Court; and,

WHEREAS there might possibly be a conflict of interest when a person wears both the hat of the prosecutor and the arbitrator; and,

WHEREAS this might be reason for an appeal in the future; now,

THEREFORE be it known unto the people of Talossa, that the Ziu enacts, that:

Subsection 10.1., Title G, of the Lexhatx, stating:

"The Magistrate Courts shall consist of not less than two and no more than three separate Magistrate Courts, each magistrate distributed to separate chambers. No member of the Uppermost Cort and/or person(s) barred by Article XVI, Section 3 of the Organic Law, from being a Judge and/or non-citizens may be a Magistrate. Magistrates shall be chosen and removed as provided in Article XVI, Section 1 & Section 4 of the Organic Law. "

shall henceforth read:

"The Magistrate Courts shall consist of not less than two and no more than three separate Magistrate Courts, each magistrate distributed to separate chambers. No member of the Uppermost Cort and/or person(s) barred by Article XVI, Section 3 of the Organic Law, from being a Judge and/or non-citizens may be a Magistrate.

Additionally, the head of the Ministry of Justice and his subordinates are barred from becoming or serving as a Magistrate. Magistrates shall be chosen and removed as provided in Article XVI, Section 1 & Section 4 of the Organic Law."

Sir Glüc da Dhi (Seneschal del Regipäts Talossan)

46RZ25 - The New Lawyeristic Timebomb Defusement Act

WHEREAS 35RZ21, The What The Heck Is The Civil Code Of The State Of Wisconsin Act, defined the portions of Wisconsin law that are incorporated into Talossan law, but did so in a way that arguably makes it impossible to prosecute anyone under the age of seventeen in Talossan courts, and

WHEREAS the said Act also purported to "dynamically" incorporate the said portions of Wisconsin law in a way that was intended to make it easier for Talossans to look up the relevant statutes but is likely inorganic by delegating the legislative power of the Ziu to the Wisconsin state legislature, now

THEREFORE the Ziu hereby amends subsection A.1.1 of el Lexhatx to strike the number "938" and replace it with the number "939", and amends section A.2 of el Lexhatx which currently reads:

"The above chapters shall be dynamically incorporated into Talossan law, so that future amendments thereto by the State of Wisconsin shall also constitute Talossan law, to the extent that they are not inconsistent with the Organic Law or with other acts of the Ziu."

to read:

"The above chapters are incorporated into Talossan law as they read on 1 June 2014/XXXV."
