BE IT ENACTED by the Ziu of Talossa that El Lexhátx shall be amended thus:

1. Title C, Section 1, Section 4.2, on the Royal Treasury, is amended from:
maintain and report to the Finance Minister and the Government on the fiduciary health of the Kingdom,
to read as follows:

maintain and report to the Finance Minister and the Government on the fiduciary health of the Kingdom, at least once in every two calendar months and whenever else requested

2. Title C, Section 6-8 on the Royal Bank and Post, as follows, are hereby DELETED in their entirety:

6. The Royal Bank and Post is responsible for setting and instituting the economic policies of the Kingdom, issuing and regulating the currency of the Kingdom, and investing funds from the royal treasury for best effect to His Majesty's realm. Be it further clarified by this title that the Chairman of the Royal Bank and Post is a political office and is not an Office of the Royal Household, and that therefore this Chairman shall lose his office when the Government that appointed him is replaced by a new elected administration.

7. The Chairman of the Royal Bank and Post, when invited to participate in the Cabinet, shall be additionally styled and addressed as the Minister of Finance, and his office as the Ministry of Finance.

7.1. Base Unit of Account. The base unit of account for the Kingdom of Talossa is hereby established and styled the "BENT." The plural of the bent is "BENCE." Convenient shortenings such as "tubbence" and "thrubcence" shall be understood and recognised by the government, and may appear on collectable tokens (colloquially "coinage", though they shall not constitute current money). This unit of account is fixed to $0.025 in the currency of the United States of America. (36RZ2, 46RZ20)

7.2. Second Unit of Account. A second unit of account, which shall have the fixed denomination of sixty (60) bence, is hereby established and styled the "LOUIS," which shall also be officially recognised by the shortened name "LOU." The plural of the lou is "LOUISE." Convenient colloquialisms for the denominations of louse are encouraged, specifically "Brock" for a single lou, "Costello" for five louse, "Ferrigno" for ten louse, "Rawls" for twenty louse, and so forth.

7.2.1. The commonly-used symbols ℓ and € shall be officially adopted for the louis and bent, respectively, and these symbols shall be used in accordance with common practice: € to be used as a separator of the two denominations, with louse on the left of the symbol and bence on the right; ℓ may also be used to indicate amounts in whole louse, by placing the symbol to the left of the amount.

7.3. Creation and Issuance of Collectable Tokens. The Royal Bank & Post is exclusively authorised to design, cause to be created, issue, and distribute collectable tokens (colloquially "coinage", though they shall not constitute current money) in any denomination of whole bence. bence, as it sees fit.

7.3.1 Current Token Design. The first issue of Talossan collectable tokens ("coins") shall have, on the obverse, the Chinese character "ben" upon a shield, with a crown above the shield; above the crown shall be the curved inscription "REGIPäTS TALOSSáN", and below the shield shall be the curved inscription of the year of issue (both the Common Era in Arabic numerals and the year of the Kingdom of Talossa in Roman numerals). On the reverse shall be an image of a dandelion, a large "Ł1", and the inscription "VIENS LUİç".

7.4. Talossan Currency. The currency of the Kingdom of Talossa shall be beer, which has been, and continues to be, thankfully and conveniently distributed worldwide.
