52RZ04 - The Royal Civil Service (Establishment) Bill

WHEREAS the continuing and needless duplication between the functions of the Royal Household and the Civil Service has been a bugbear for ages;

AND WHEREAS it has been credibly suggested that the lack of qualified applicants for the Civil Service is due to "Royal Household" simply sounding cooler;

AND IN THE GENERAL SPIRIT of streamlining and reform of our Governmental structures shown by the Seneschál's recent "house-cleaning";

BE IT ENACTED BY THE KING, COSA AND SENÄTS OF TALOSSA IN ZIU ASSEMBLED that:

A. Title C of El Lexhátx shall be REPEALED and replaced in its entirety by the following Title:

C. The Royal Civil Service

1. The following offices are henceforth to be styled the Offices of the Royal Civil Service. The head of each such office shall be considered an Officer of the Royal Civil Service, and the duties and functions of the offices shall be those described below, including for each office any similar duties as may be assigned or imposed by the Commissioner of the Royal Civil Service.

1.1. The Royal Civil Service Commission, headed by the Commissioner of the Royal Civil Service. The function of the Commissioner is to recommend to the King the appointment of Permanent Secretaries within the cabinet ministries, as well as other Officers of the Royal Civil Service and such other non-political appointees as may be appropriate.

1.1.1. The Commissioner may recommend the appointment of permanent secretaries to any ministry based upon their qualifications, willingness to work and taking into consideration the applicant's performance in prior positions, with the approval of the relevant Minister. All Permanent Secretary positions shall exist within the Royal Civil Service and shall be non-political appointments which shall be held until lawful dismissal, resignation or incapacitation.

1.1.2. Secretaries shall serve as the administrative chief of their respective ministries tasked with the day to day operation of the ministry's work, and/or for any other special role assigned to them when their position is created. Secretaries shall implement Government policy within the bounds of Organic and statutory law, in the manner in which they deem appropriate.

1.1.3. The Commissioner shall remove from office any secretary for professional misconduct, inability to perform one's duties due to incapacitation or failure to perform their required duties.

1.1.3.1. Dismissed secretaries may contest their dismissal by bringing complaint before a trial court. The court shall consider if any of the petitioner's rights, afforded by law, have been violated. The court shall have the authority to order reinstatement where appropriate or dismiss the complaint, thus sustaining the dismissal.

1.1.4. An individual may not hold the offices of Seneschal, Distáin, Justice of the Uppermost Cort, Monarch, or any cabinet portfolio while simultaneously holding an active appointment to a secretary office. In addition, any Secretaries within the Ministry of Justice may not serve as a judge in any inferior court.

1.1.5. Secretaries shall be styled "Honourable" during their tenure.

1.1.6. Secretaries shall be empowered to appoint and dismiss non-political appointees within their mandate with the approval of the Commissioner of the Royal Civil Service and the appropriate Minister. These appointees will retain their offices through changes in government.

1.1.6.1. Section 1.1.6 above shall not be construed to deny Ministers the power to make appointments and dismissals within their Ministry, other than the Secretary and those appointed by them.

1.1.7. Secretaries shall retain their offices through changes of government.

1.2. The Chancery, headed by the Secretary of State. The functions of the Chancery are to prepare and submit the Clark, determine and report the passage or failure of each resolution considered by the Ziu, conduct, certify, and report upon all national elections, maintain the census and citizenship list, assist the citizenry in determining Talossan language personal names and registering the same, register political parties, communicate census information to political party leaders, and track and maintain legislative seating assignments.

1.2.1. One member of the Chancery shall be the Royal Data Clerk, heading the Office of Dynamic Data Management. The function of the Office of Dynamic Data Management is to manage all computer records owned by the Kingdom of Talossa for its official functions and delegated to its care in order to help other Royal Households, Ministries or any other organization of the Kingdom which needs data management. The Royal Data Clerk may be the same person as the Secretary of State. The Royal Data Clerk shall be considered an Officer of the Royal Household.

1.2.1.1. Once the first Royal Data Clerk accepts his position, and once two members of the Cort pu Inalt have confirmed that they are in receipt of full and accessible backups of the database system currently hosted on talossa.ca, this database shall be considered to be the property of the Office of Dynamic Data Management and thus, the property of the Kingdom of Talossa .

1.2.2. The Bureau of the Census within the Chancery shall conduct a census of all citizens of Talossa, collecting demographic information and updating the Chancery's contact details for the citizenry. A census shall be performed every two calendar years, or more frequently if the Seneschal so requests.

1.2.2.1. The only required questions for any respondent on the Talossan Census shall be (a) current Talossan and non-Talossan names, and (b) citizen contact details (preferably email). The Chancery will provide an option for respondents to share their email address with party leaders, pursuant to Lex.D.8.5.4.

1.2.2.2. Other questions on the Talossan Census shall be identical to the questions on the last census. These questions may be changed by the Chancery, either of its own volition or on request from the Seneschal, but any changes shall be approved by the Ziu. These questions will be marked as optional, and at no time shall a citizen be forced or required to respond to an optional question.

1.2.2.3. Any information collected during the census that would individually identify any person or persons, including their contact information, shall be withheld from the public for to protect individual privacy, consistent with Lex.D.8. The only exception is that citizens may opt to have their e-mail address shared with party leaders, pursuant to Lex.D.8.5.4. Census information shall not be released under any "freedom of information" or "government transparency" requests, notwithstanding any other provisions of el Lexhatx.

1.2.2.4. Demographic information and other information that does not identify the respondents shall be made available within thirty (30) days of the conclusion of any census.

1.2.3. Members of the Chancery are to be considered as if they were Deputy Secretary of State, without the ability to replace the Secretary should he become unavailable. Members may act in the name of the Secretary of State and perform official business as delegated to them by the Secretary. Once the requirements of M.2.1 above have been fulfilled, at least three members of the Chancery at any time shall have all the access required to carry out the Chancery's functions under this section.

1.3. The Scribery of Abbavilla, headed by the Scribe of Abbavilla. The functions of the Scribery are to maintain and publish the Organic and statutory laws of the Kingdom.

1.3.1. The Scribe of Abbavilla shall maintain all laws in L'Anuntzia dels Legeux, insofar as possible, with the same content that was approved by the Ziu, except that amending acts that refer to section numbers in pre-existing statutes that were changed by the Scribery shall be construed as referring to the equivalent section numbers in the amended statutes as originally enacted.

1.3.2. The Scribe of Abbavilla shall maintain el Lexhatx in accordance with the directions in Title Z. The Scribe shall thus advise all proposers of bills to the Clark on proper formatting of their bills to conform with Title Z.

1.3.3. If the Scribe, or their deputy(s), finds an error in the formatting, grammar, or spelling of a bill which is currently in the Clark, or is alerted of same, they shall work with the sponsor of the bill to fix said error(s).

1.3.4. The Scribe, or their deputy(s), shall publicize any proposed changes to a bill, with the approval of the author. The changes are deemed to have been implemented after they have been public for seven days, unless the changes are disallowed by the conditions of C.1.2.5.

1.3.5. If, before the proposed changes are implemented, a petition of MCs representing at least 1/3 of the seats in the Cosa, or a petition of at least 1/3 of the Senators, goes before the Scribe in protest of the proposed changes to a bill, the changes cannot be implemented.

1.4. The Royal Archives, headed by the Royal Archivist. The function of the Archives is to preserve and make available the historical artifacts and information of the Kingdom in museums and other venues.

1.4.1. The Royal Archiver be always known throughout the Kingdom of Talossa as Royal Archivist.

1.4.2. No Public Record or Archive under the control of a Governmental body and/or the Royal Civil Service Body shall be destroyed, erased or otherwise disposed of without the written authorisation of the Royal Archivist. This Authorisation or Refusal must be announced on Wittenberg within three days of such Authorisation or Refusal is made. Authorisation or Refusal by the Royal Archivist for the destruction of an Archive may be overturned by a resolution passed by the Ziu.

1.4.3. An Archive/record that has been granted authorisation for disposal may not be disposed until after thirty days after such an authorisation is granted.

1.4.4. Any person who damages or causes to be damaged any Public Archive or Record in the control of a Governmental or Royal Civil Service body; or damages or causes to be damaged any Public Archive in the control of a Private body, Community and/or Individual; or removes, destroys or erases such Public record or archive otherwise than in accordance with this provision or any other law, shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanour if such damage, removal, destruction, or erasure was wilful, or guilty of a Class C misdemeanour if such damage, removal, destruction, or erasure was reckless.

1.4.5. The Royal Archivist may refuse to allow any person convicted of an offence in terms of these provisions, access to an archives repository for such period as he or she may deem fit, subject to an appeal to the Uppermost Court.

1.4.6. For the purpose of this provision a Public Record and Archive is hereby defined as: "Public Archive" or "Public Record" means a record/archive created or received by a governmental or Royal Civil Service body in pursuance of its activities."

1.4.7. At the end of each Clark, the Archivist shall post the link provided by the Secretary of State to the Chancery website.

1.5. The Royal Treasury, headed by the Burgermeister of Inland Revenue. The function of the treasury is to:

1.5.1. collect all revenues due to the King,

1.5.2. maintain and report to the Finance Minister and the Government on the fiduciary health of the Kingdom, at least once in every two calendar months and whenever else requested

1.5.3. disburse from the treasury all funds legitimately appropriated by the Ziu,

1.5.4. keep a record of all changes in the account balances of the Royal Treasury.

1.6. The Royal Society for the Advancement of Knowledge, headed by the President of the Royal Society. The function of the Royal Society is to conduct and promote research and academic study in all areas of human endeavour.

1.6.1. Schools may be created within the Society for the purpose of focusing on a specific subject. The exact procedure for establishing a school shall be chosen by the President, who shall also appoint a dean to supervise each school.

1.7. Here so by the Ziu be enacted, as follows, in verses protracted:
that we do create

2. With the exception of the Secretary of State, every Office of the Royal Civil Service shall be assigned to a responsible Minister of the Government as named below, to report and consult concerning the conduct of their office as and when requested, necessary or useful. Officers are not subject to the direction of their responsible Minister except as required by Organic and statutory law. The Commissioner of the Royal Civil Service shall be responsible to the Seneschál, the Scribe of Abbavilla to the Attorney-General, the Royal Archivist to the Minister of the Interior, the Burgermeister of Inland Revenue to the Minister of Finance, and the President of the Royal Society and the Poet Laureate to the Minister of Culture.

2.1. The Secretary of State shall report to and consult with the Ziu, as represented by the Túischac'h and the Mençéi, concerning the operation of the Chancery as and when necessary, requested or useful.

3. The Commissioner of the Royal Civil Service shall be appointed by the King, for a two-year renewable term, after being recommended by the Seneschál and approved by a two-thirds majority vote in the Cosa and a majority vote of the Senäts in favour of appointment. The King, with the advice and consent of the Seneschál, may remove from office the Commissioner of the Royal Civil Service for professional misconduct, inability to perform their duties due to incapacitation or failure to perform their required duties.

4. The other Officers of the Royal Civil Service shall have no fixed terms of office and shall not be removed from office by the dissolution of the Cosa. The other Officers of the Royal Civil Service are appointed by the King on the recommendation of the Commissioner of the Royal Civil Service, and removed by the King on the recommendation of the Commissioner of the Royal Civil Service for professional misconduct, inability to perform their duties due to incapacitation or failure to perform their required duties.

5. Any dismissed Officers shall be entitled to judicial review of their removal, by bringing complaint before a trial court. The court shall consider if any of the petitioner's rights, afforded by law, have been violated. The court shall have the authority to order reinstatement where appropriate or dismiss the complaint, thus sustaining the dismissal.

6. The Commissioner of the Royal Civil Service and the Secretary of State shall hold no seat in the Ziu.

7. Each Officer of the Royal Civil Service is empowered to appoint one or more deputies (with the approval of the Commissioner of the Royal Civil Service) who may act in the place of that officer in all cases. The King and nation shall be informed of all such appointments.

8. Each Officer of the Royal Civil Service is empowered to appoint and dismiss any citizen of Talossa to non-political offices within their branch of the Royal Civil Service – including the heads of those subordinate agencies within their Office described by law, and empowered to organize or reorganize his office in any manner he deems shall best effect its services to the King, with the approval of the Commissioner of the Royal Civil Service, and within the limits set by law. empower any subservient official to make similar appointments and dismissals within any specific agency of the Office of the Royal Civil Service, with the approval of the Commissioner of the Royal Civil Service.

52RZ06 - An Act to Remove Bénédictsch Ardpresteir from the Uppermost Cort of Talossa

WHEREAS at or around June 2015, Bénédictsch Ardpresteir (hereinafter "Ben-Ard") became a Puisne Justice of the Cort pü Inalt (hereinafter "the Cort"),

WHEREAS to date, Ben-Ard has only had occasion to properly preside over a single case, Case 14-01 da Simeon v HM Chancery, resolved in dismissal for want of prosecution;

WHEREAS to date, Ben-Ard has demonstrated a pattern of disappearing whenever challenged, including outright refusal to comply with the rules of the Cort, whether that requires answering a complaint or adhering to deadlines (see e.g. APPEAL Case 14-02a M.E.daL v BenArd (appeal from a lower court's conviction finding Ben-Ard guilty of the class A misdemeanor of libel}, Talossa v Ben-Ard et al (refusing to respond to a petition filed by the Ministry of Justice in response to Ben-Ard abusing his authority as a Puisne Justice)), WHEREAS to date, Ben-Ard has found it proper to recuse himself in a number of cases (see e.g. APPEAL Case 14-05, People v ESB (upon his offer to help, no party granted permission}, Petition for Injunctive Relieff re: OrgLaw Amendment), and has a history, even as a Magistrate Judge, of absconding in a matter over which he presides (see e.g. Case 14-06, People v la Mha et al.), and has himself commented that nobody wants him to preside over a proceeding;

WHEREAS Ben-Ard has previously abused his authority as a Puisne Justice in an attempt to breach the separation of powers and compel the Ziu, which resulted in unnecessary prolonged litigation and an investigation from the Ministry of Justice (see Suo Moto action in respect of RZ3 of the 51st Cosa},

WHEREAS Ben-Ard, on July 28, 2018, publicly attacked the leader of a political party, who happens to be in a same-sex marriage, lodging a patently homophobic attack with the line "Am sure you are a good wife, now get a life," which obviously sought to emasculate the individual by labeling him as a "wife," and in-turn made a blatantly misogynistic comment that "wives" or those whom he deems should take on "wifely" roles, i.e., those whom he perceives as feminine, should not concern themselves with matters of the state or politics.

THEREFORE, the Second Covenant guarantees that the State shall not discriminate on the basis of sexual orientation;

FURTHER, pursuant to the Organic Law, Article XVI, Section 1, upon a vote of two-thirds of the Cosâ, with the consent of the Senäts and the Crown, a justice of the Cort shall be considered removed;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Kingdom of Talossa cannot countenance a sitting Puisne Justice who refuses to appear in Cort when a named party, cannot preside over most matters commenced because of conflicts his actions have caused, openly attacks Talossans on the basis of their sexual orientation with overtly homophobic and sexist language, and who has shown a gross disregard for any sense of propriety for his position as a Puisne Justice, having abused its authority, and as such, upon this act meeting the Organic requirements stated herein, Bénédictsch Ardpresteir shall no longer sit as a Puisne Justice of the Uppermost Cort of Talossa, and shall have all the privileges associated with that position revoked.
