8RC19 - The Decade Committee Act

The Cosà hereby establishes a Decade Committee to study how best to celebrate and commemorate Talossa's 10th anniversary (26 Dec 89). Robert Madison, Dan Lorentz, John Jahn, Florence Yarney, Jean Williams, and others to be invited by this Committee shall sit on the Committee.

8RC20 - The Krugerrand Act

8RC21 - Talossan Anti-Communist Act

8RC22 - The Oh! Woe! For Shame, after Seven Long Years We Admit Melanie Act

The entire Talossan nation, after sincere reflection and widespread sorrow over our astonishing blunder, which reflects poorly upon our collective national character, hereby repents with a heavy heart of its sins. In this repentance we call, no, we beg humbly with our most sincere petitioning voices raised in a chorus of apology, Please let Melanie Ingles become a citizen of the Kingdom of Talossa! She has been a good friend for many years and not inviting her sooner into the sacred bonds of our national fellowship is a profound and damning indictment of our national idiocy. Will she forgive us? Only if we make her a citizen. Repent, O Talossa! And welcome our friend home.

8RC23 - The National Education Act of 1988 and IX

Because many (probably most) future Talossans are people whom we don't know yet and who don't know us yet, they are limited in their knowledge of our varied and fascinating history because they have not experienced it first-hand. Therefore the Cosà, upholder of the nation's identity, henceforth requires every immigrant entering the country (beginning in January 1989/x) to purchase one copy of The History of the Kingdom of Talossa. The Cosà may make exceptions by law to this requirement if it sees fit.

Proposed by: Robert Madison (PC-Vuode}, John A. Jahn (TNP-Pórt Maxhestic)

Noi urent q'estadra sã,

Ben Madison (PC-Vuode)

Ián von Metáiriã (TNP-Pórt Maxhestic)

8RC24 - The Postal Perversion Act

8RC25 - The Living Cosâ Act

WHEREAS , all the members of the current Eighth Cosâ live in or near the Talossan national territory and WHEREAS the Government are always looking for ways to spice up our Talossan life, Therefore the Cosâ resolves the following: There shall be no vote by post on the January Clark. Instead a public meeting shall be held during January (the date to be set by the Prime Minister and the Secretary of State), where all available Cosâ members are to assemble for a public meeting of the Cosâ where the issues will be debated and bills voted on. Dan Lorentz is named interim Speaker and will preside over the meeting. Parliamentary procedure will be followed where possible.

Proposed by: Robert Madison (PC-Vuode}, Tom Buffone (PC-Mussolini)

8RC26 - An Act to Change the Limit on How Many Bills You May Submit

8RC27 - The Northern Annexations Act

WHEREAS the Talossan people in two referenda (March 1986 and October 1986) have ratified the policy of having the Kingdom take possession of the so-called Shorewood and Whitefish Bay territories, Therefore this Cosâ hereby empowers the Minister of Defence and Anti-American Broadships, Mr Erni, to lead an official annexation of these territories at a date most convenient to him. Furthermore a period of one year from the date of annexation is declared during which this bill cannot be repealed or amended.
